Ma lily,

Le Vendredi 8 Mars 2014.

Amel Engragnes (parfois les de St Marc)

Je pense que tu caches ... que je sais que il n'est pas à te une maman parfaite. Non de la je sais. Je le sais, et ça me le dit le cœur comme tu es peut me savoir.
et on verra terriblement (c'est ceux à cette partie de moi qui ne fait pas ce que il faut et à cette partie malade qui me rend la vie si difficile et qui a fait le faire du mal). Car le but, ma lily, c'est que j'l'aime une façon que je ne pourrais pas exprimer avec des mots.

Je t'aime si fort que j'ai mal.
J'ai ta si aussi mon petit rayon à moi et quand je pense à quel point je t'aime, cela me fait chaud au cœur et me fait sourire.

Sometimes it seems that you only want to speak English, so I write in English too. You spoke to me in French last time (I was so happy to finally talk to you & to have you speak to me normally - that told the whole world!) but for almost a year I would say I also seemed important to you that we spoke in English. & that's fine baby.

Ok, so here I go. Like I said, I want you to know that ... I know
I haven't been the greatest mother.

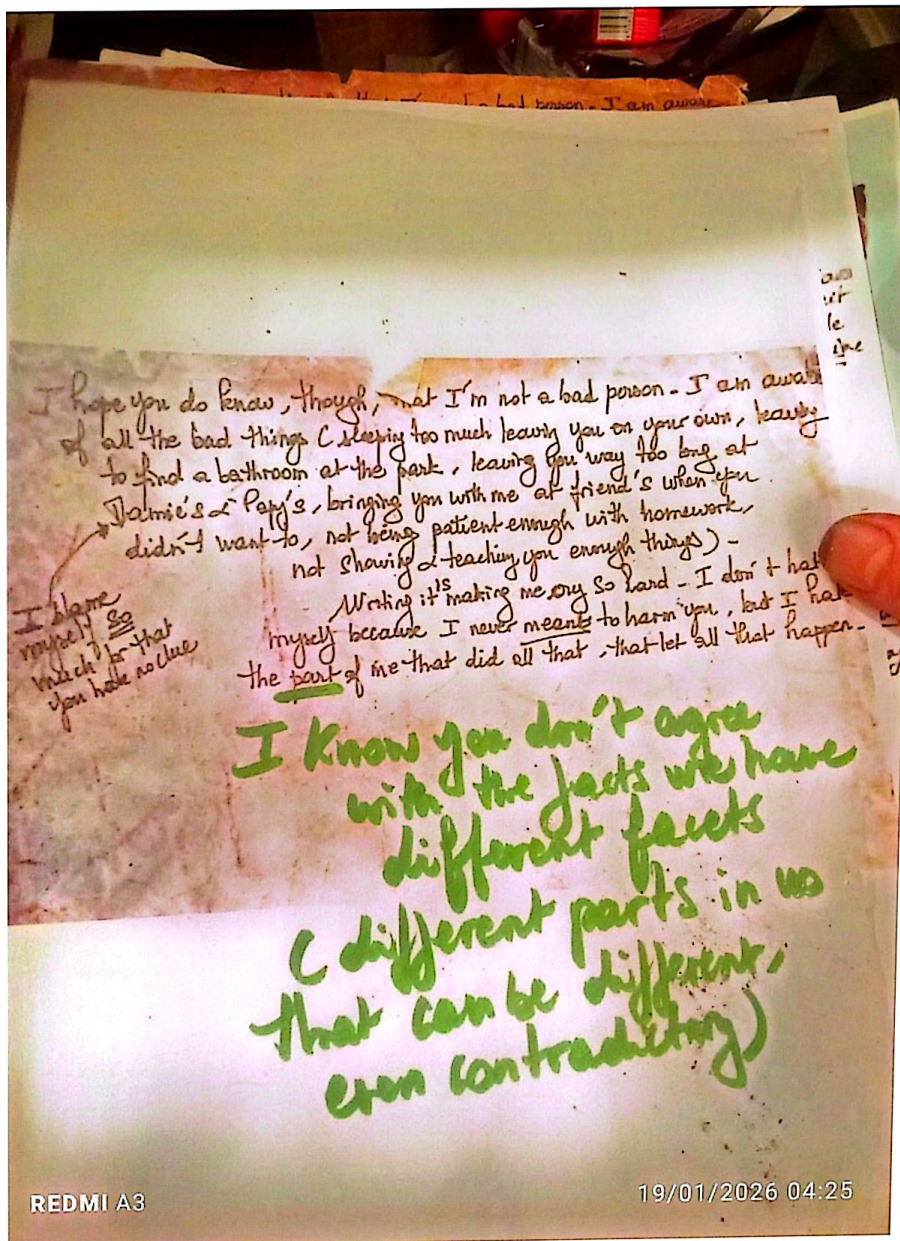

I know you're been hurt because of me. Please know that this is more painful than I could ever describe.

This is the last thing I wanted. To hurt you. To disappoint you.
To make you feel unsafe, uncared for. My god lily, I'm crying & hard. I never ever would have thought I would be able to bring that on my precious being, my so loved daughter, bring that on to you lily. This is the last thing I wanted by my god yet, it happened. You were very hurt, because of me.

Ma Lily,

I want you to know ... I know I haven't been the greatest mom, I know you've been hurt because of me, and please know it is more painful than I could ever describe with words. This is the last thing I wanted. Knowing that you have suffered / are suffering because of me is excruciating. It is a pain I wouldn't wish to anyone. It is a pain I never thought I would experience one day because children, to me, are precious little beings, pure, innocent, that need to be, no matter what, "cote que cote" (at any price) PROTECTED, and cherished.

You said you didn't feel safe with me - What that means for me, is that I have failed my role as a mother, and this is a horrible realization - I haven't made you feel protected.

I wouldn't say I was a horrible mom - I know in my heart how your well-being, your feeling the happiest as possible, your experiencing the most joy, your feeling heard, understood <sup>feeling</sup> much important (because you definitely were and are) -- how all of that mattered to me. It was central to my life. I know I did a lot of good things, brought you quite a lot (I think), we talked a lot, we laughed a lot, I told you all the time how precious you were to me.

I know all that. I'm happy I wrote all that because in all honesty, I think I had almost forgotten it.

And yet, despite all that, despite (malgré le fait que) the fact your happiness mattered to me a great deal & I did a lot of good things, I managed to do things that hurt you a lot, and to not do things I should have done. To not be there when I should have been.

This is killing me (c'est une expression bien sûr, mais ça va tout dire, c'est très, très douloureuse pour mon cœur). My heart is bleeding knowing my most precious being was hurt & neglected at times, I not taken care of the way she should have been or deserved to be. This will probably be painful to me my whole life.
